ORDER No. E. 5992-6024—EDN. 106-53-16, DATED BANGALORE, THE 16TH AUGUST 1954.

Government in their Order dated 9th December 1953 constituted a Co-ordinating Committee for Social Service Organisations for recommending, from time to time, suitable measures for the spread and improvement and systematic organisation of manual labour and social work, Samskriti Prachar work, Adult Education work and physical culture. The Committee has met a number of times so far and has reviewed the activities of the Social Service Organisations in the State, viz., Bharat Sevak Samaj, Bharat Sevadal, Adult Education Council and Bharat Scouts and Guides and Samskriti Prachar work. The finalisation of its recommendations as to how the activities of these organisations should be co-ordinated will take some time. Meanwhile, the Co-ordinating Committee has recommended that there is need to constitute at District levels subsidiary committees for co-ordinating the activities and functions of the Social Service Organisations, mentioned above.

2. The resolution of the Co-ordinating Committee for Social Service Organisations on the formation of District Co-ordinating Committees reads as follows:—

"There is no need for the constitution of a separate District Committee for implementing the Literary and Cultural Development Schemes in the State. The District Co-ordinating Committees, contemplated in the proceedings dated the 10th December 1953 of the Co-ordinating Committee for Social Service Organisations, should be suitably enlarged in respect of constitution so as to include the activities of the Literary and Cultural Development Department also. With this end in view, the full composition of the District Co-ordinating Committees may be fixed as follows:—

1. The Deputy Commissioner (CHAIRMAN).
2. The President, Headquarters, Municipal Council.
3. The District Educational Officer (Member-Secretary).
4. One District representative each from:—
   (a) The Bharat Sevadal,
   (b) The Bharat Sevak Samaj,
   (c) The Mysore State Adult Education Council,
   (d) Bharat Scouts and Guides.
5. One member of the Central Advisory Council for Literary and Cultural Development, residing in the District to be nominated by Government.

Four non-officials of the District including one member of the Legislative Assembly and one member of the Legislative Council.

Note.—(1) As far as possible ladies may be nominated to the Committee.
(2) One of the non-official members of the Committee will be the Vice-Chairman and another the Joint-Secretary of the Committee. These will be nominated by the Committee".

3. Government agree that there is need for constituting District Co-ordinating Committees in the State and it will be the responsibility of these Committees to supervise, control and guide the activities of the Social Service Organisations mentioned above, in the light of the recommendations made by the Central Co-ordinating Committee and approved by Government from time to time. The composition of these Committees shall be as suggested by the Co-ordinating Committee for Social Service Organisations.

4. The Deputy Commissioners of Districts will take immediate action to constitute these committees and suggest to Government the representatives of the various Organisations and Departments (except Members of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly) to be nominated as its members. Selection of members of the Legislative Assembly and Legislative Council and the representatives from the Central Advisory Council for Literary and Cultural Development for nomination to the District Committees will be made by Government. The Deputy Commissioners are requested to see that, as far as possible, ladies are nominated to these Committees. There should, at least, be one lady member on each Committee.

5. Government also approve the suggestion of the Co-ordinating Committee for Social Service Organisations that the District Committees may nominate, from amongst their members, a Vice-Chairman and a Joint-Secretary.

6. Separate orders will issue regarding funds to be placed at the disposal of the District Co-ordinating Committees and the rates of T.A. and D.A. to be paid to the members.
